Forecast for Sunday 07 Jul 2024

Weather: A rather cool and showery day, with these showers heavy and bearing a risk of hail and thunder. Low cloud gradually lifting through the morning, mostly clearing summits and more frequent sunny spells developing, but with showers becoming more widespread especially inland. Showers easing late afternoon and into the evening, then becoming dry by dusk with increasingly clear skies.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 30%, increasing to 90% from late-morning.

Low Cloud and visibility: Occasional scattered or broken cloud with bases down to around 600m initially, mainly on western facing slopes in the north of the range. Cloud lifting mainly above summits from late morning, but patches of cloud expected at similar levels in showers. Mostly good visibility at first, but locally moderate or poor on some western slopes. Generally very good visibility from late-morning, but temporarily poor in heavy showers.
